DEAD AS HECTOR.

The Condition of Lodge's Force Bill for This Session.

Frye Discovers a Bad State of Affairs in the Republican Camp—Blaine and Quay Together.

The Reply to Governor Prince's Request for Troops to Prevent Further White-Cap Outrages in New Mexico.

Who Killed Cook Robin?

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Crowds assembled in the senate galleries at 10 o'clock today expecting to see a great political battle. Quay was moving about with unusual activity, and the senate chamber resembled a great political convention. Quay was bolstering up the courage of the weak-kneed and appealing to his friends to stand by him. Hoar opened the discussion with a long-winded partisan and tiresome harangue. Mr. Frye delivered a vigorous speech and disclosed a bad state of affairs in the Republican camp. The fight in which there is the most bitterness is that among the advocates of the election bill, equally earnest in its support who differ on the question of

THE CHANGE OF RULES. He uncovered the caucus secrets with great freedom, and the revelations made were startling. He scored Edmunds fairly for sticking to the old methods of doing business, and said that cowardice never won a battle or even a friend. The Vermont senator retorted that cowardice never won a battle nor robbed a man, insinuating that the sort of courage Frye spoke of was that which assaulted men and took their property. This was the most dramatic and significant feature of the discussion. The notice given by several senators that there were many yet who wanted to make remarks on the subject, threatens a long struggle. Meanwhile a great effort will be made to bring about a compromise by which a date may be fixed for a vote on the election bill at the next session. The intensity of the feeling between the different factions does not give promise of harmony or agreement. The discussion after Mr. Hoar's speech was practically an admission that the election bill has been killed, and a dispute as to who had done the killing. Some surprise was manifested at Frye's speech and the position he assumed, but he is now acting in accord with Blaine. The cause of this convulsion lies in the sudden growth of a political power of Reed. This has forced the triumvirate which so long controlled politics in Maine to come together again for mutual support and common safety, and hence Blaine, Hale and Frye are any action that will defeat the force bill. He has no more faith in such measures of political strategy now than he had when he defeated the force bill fifteen years ago. Then Hoar was a disciple of Blaine. Now Hoar is frightened by Lodge's senatorial prospects, which are very bright, and he has abandoned his conservative course for a rash and bitter partisanship.

PULLING TOGETHER. Blaine favors the Quay resolution or

THE PRESIDENT WILL NOT INTERFERE WITH TROOPS. The secretary of the interior has sent the following reply in answer to Governor Prince's request that troops be ordered into New Mexico to prevent further outrages by White Caps: "The president will not interfere with troops until it is demonstrated that the sheriff or United States marshal, as the case may require, is unable to preserve the peace or to serve process because of resistance. The civil authorities must first act to the extent of their ability. Instructions have been sent to the law officers by the department of justice. You will be supported, but you must go to the full length of your ability and territorial force first."

TEXAS ARRIVES. Thomas S. West, Fort Worth; David Harrel, Austin.

QUAY RASTLING. Special to the Gazette. WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Quay was active in the senate this morning as he never has been before, moving among his supporters and followers, conferring with one and then another, sounding the quality of the courage of one senator and screwing that of another "up to the sticking point." He was as if in a political convention, which he so well knows how to manipulate. The interesting feature of the discussion developed after Hoar closed his speech, and it was just about to reach a climax when the morning hour closed and the subject was dropped. Spooner, making a motion to recommend, a sharp discussion developed a determination on the part of most senators to have a fight to a finish in the senate. The discussion proceeded practically upon the assumption that the election bill had been killed and developed into a dispute as to who was responsible for its killing.

SMALLPOX OR CHICKENPOX.

Dr. Rutherford Requested to Investigate the Disease at Waco. Special to the Gazette. WACO, TEX., Aug. 23.—McGregor was quarantined at Waco on account of rumors of smallpox, and to prevent any further injustice, Governor Ross in response to a request from Mayor McCulloch, wired Dr. Rutherford, state health physician, to come to Waco immediately. Smallpox or chickenpox whatever it may be, the city authorities have adopted rigorous measures to prevent its dissemination and every case is thoroughly isolated and quarantined. Dr. Rutherford is now on the Mexican border or was yesterday evening, but is expected to arrive in Waco to-morrow night. It is presumed Dr. Rutherford will put a quietus on the now prevalent rumors that the disease is spreading.

COLLIN COUNTY.

Contest Ended—Bailey Carries Every Box in the County.

Hare's Friends Concede the County to Bailey by a Large Majority. His Nomination Assured.

Belton Republicans Instruct for Judge J. P. Osterhout for Governor—McLennan Develops Lily Whites.

Collins County. CLOSED AT McMINNEY.

McMINNEY, TEX., Aug. 23.—Hon. J. W. Bailey closed this morning the remarkable canvass of Collins county. An immense throng crowded the courtroom and enthused the speaker. In reply to the charge that he was an importation from Mississippi, the speaker referred to the constitutional convention now in session in that state in a touchingly beautiful invocation. It is impossible to do justice to the speaker or describe the effect of his visit audience. It was indescribable. Judge Hare spoke this afternoon, but he was powerless to arouse his supporters. So far as heard from Bailey has carried every box in the county. This includes McKinney, Wylie, Plano, Anna, Melissa, Allen, Coperville and Nevada. He has undoubtedly carried Collins county by a large majority.

NEVADA—BAILEY, 133; HARE, 30. Special to the Gazette.

NEVADA, TEX., Aug. 23.—The vote here to-day stood 133 for Bailey and 30 for Hare.

FARMERSVILLE—BAILEY, 439; HARE, 129. Special to the Gazette.

FARMERSVILLE, TEX., Aug. 23.—At the congressional primary to-day Bailey received 439, Hare, 129.

A LIGHT VOTE AT WYLIE.

WYLIE, TEX., Aug. 23.—A light vote was polled in the primary election to-day. Bailey carries this box over Hare by over three to one. Hare's friends concede the county to Bailey by a large majority.

THE NEWS AT SHERMAN.

SHERMAN, TEX., Aug. 23.—The returns from Collins county announcing the victory of Bailey, which, with former instructions, insures his nomination on the first ballot at the congressional convention, were received here by his friends with enthusiasm. While the many friends of Judge Hare regret his defeat, yet they admire the victor, and the Fifth district will never be ashamed of her congressman.

INTEREST FELT AT PILOT POINT.

PILOT POINT, TEX., Aug. 23.—There is a great interest manifested here in the Hare-Bailey contest in Collins county. The young statesman has many enthusiastic admirers here who are watching with intense interest the result in Collins, which will determine whether he is to have a walk-over in the nominating convention or a bitter struggle at Decatur.

AT PLANO.

PLANO, TEX., Aug. 23.—Collins's congressional primaries were held to-day. Plano gave nearly seven to one in favor of Bailey. Every vote was cast for him from Bailey's overwhelming majority. The county will go largely for Bailey.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT BELTON.

BELTON, TEX., Aug. 23.—The Republican convention of this county held their convention to-day and selected C. O. Harris and G. W. Smith delegates to the state convention. Dan Sullivan was elected permanent chairman and a series of resolutions were adopted, among which the present administration was endorsed. It is understood that the delegates favor the nomination of a full ticket, with John B. Rector for governor and S. L. Wren of Austin county commissioner of the land office.

MCLENNAN LILY WHITES ON TOP.

WACO, Aug. 23.—The county Republican convention met at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the district court room. Dr. M. Armstrong was elected chairman and J. H. Hines, colored, was made secretary. The negroes were in the majority, but the white delegates resolved themselves into a returning board and out-counted them. The names of only two negroes appeared on the list of delegates presented to the convention to be sent to San Antonio. The man and brother though as they constituted a majority of the Republicans in this county they are entitled to a majority of the delegates. This being denied them, those two whose names were on the list withdrew and a "lily white" delegation will go from McLennan.

DALLAS COUNTY REPUBLICANS.

DALLAS, TEX., Aug. 23.—The Republican county convention met this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the auditorium of the city hall. Mr. J. M. McCormick, chairman of the county executive committee, called the convention to order and stated the object of the meeting. Ben Myers nominated L. W. Williams for chairman, and he was unanimously elected. Mr. Williams, in taking the chair, made a short speech thanking the convention for the honor conferred upon him. He lauded the Republican party, saying that, like the state of Texas, it is the greatest thing the sun shines on. A. S. Thayer was chosen secretary. Col. Biggar moved the appointment of seven to select twenty-one delegates to the San Antonio convention. The chairman appointed the following committee: J. C.

Biggar, C. F. Alterman, Melville Wade (colored), Alf. Stone (colored), J. J. O'Connor, W. H. Atwell and A. H. Curry.

Bart Sinclair moved the appointment of five on platform and resolutions. The following committee was appointed: B. Sinclair, D. C. Holman, A. B. Cochran, J. C. Calhoun and A. J. Houston on this committee.

A recess was then taken while the committee was preparing to report. The committee to select delegates to the San Antonio convention submitted the following report:

"Our committee beg to report the following: We think it advisable to report favorably for forty delegates, as follows: B. D. Atwell, Hutchins; T. J. Canner, Severe; A. H. Curry, Lancaster; L. W. Williams, Oak Cliff; M. Straus, Cedar Hill; G. T. Pruitt, Seagraves; Meridith Parks, De Soto; A. J. Houston, Dallas; J. M. McCormick, C. L. Edwards, John J. O'Connor, P. J. Butler, George L. Doyle, T. G. Riley, C. F. Alterman, J. Bower, B. Meyer, August Muller, M. Sues, Joe Crich, Henry Stule, George A. Knight, A. C. Petri, John Morrison, Arch Cochran, L. S. Cochran, L. S. Garrison, Bartlett Sinclair, Melville Wade (colored), James Griffin, F. J. Richardson, George F. Johnson, Jack Lowrey, Alf. Stone (colored), Eugene Marshall, James Alden, O. S. Parry, Joe T. Hart, E. Cumby, W. H. Atwell, E. S. Thayer, E. Davis and Alexander Brownlee, all of Dallas. The reading of the report was hardly finished before Major Purcell jumped to his feet and moved that it be rejected. Dr. Cochran opposed this, but wanted the name of Judge Noron, now absent from the city, attached.

A dozen delegates were claiming the floor at once. Mr. Garrison succeeded in putting in a motion to table the motion to reject and the resolution to add to the report.

This was adopted, and then the motion to adopt the report was carried with but few dissenting voices.

After a rather heated wrangle the convention adopted a platform of which the following is a synopsis: It asks for an amendment of the constitution allowing the establishment by the state of a home for all needy soldiers; an increase of silver money; the establishment of a state mechanical college, with a farmer at the head; it indorses Blaine's reciprocity tariff; indorses harbor improvement by the state. The convention voted down a resolution by Arch Cochran indorsing Harrison, and one by B. Sinclair indorsing the force bill. A. J. Houston was elected chairman of the county executive committee. J. M. McCormick was recommended for chairman of the state executive committee.

PRESSING HOGG FOR OFFICE.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.

AUSTIN, TEX., Aug. 23.—Governatorial nominee Hogg is beginning to experience some of the woes of the man so fortunate as to ascend to power. Letters from office-seekers in all parts of the state are pouring in, and if the attorney-general would answer them all he would have no time to devote to his duties now pressing upon him against the fall terms of the courts; but Mr. Hogg takes his medicine like a man. One thing is certain, there will be many disappointed office-seekers when Mr. Hogg has made up his state some months hence, which he has not done as yet.

GEORGIA FARMERS' ALLIANCE.

ATLANTA, GA., Aug. 22.—The Georgia state Alliance finished its labors yesterday and adjourned. The most important action was the unanimous passage of the platform as final that the Alliance adopted at the St. Louis convention. This carried with it, of course, the unanimous indorsement of the sub-treasury plan, which is one of the principal planks; also of the government ownership of transportation lines. Cotton bagging was adopted as the Alliance covering for cotton as against jute. This is carrying out the fight on jute made last year. The eligibility clause was made identical with that of the Alliance, providing that no one shall be admitted to membership unless they be a farmer, farm laborer, mechanic, country school teachers, physicians and preachers, editors and editors of strictly agricultural journals. The convention was largely attended and for the most part unanimous.

ALLIANCE RECEPTION.

Banquet Tendered the Delegates Last Night.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.

DALLAS, TEX., Aug. 23.—A reception tendered the Alliance convention delegates was given to-night at the hall of the Y. M. C. A. on Young street. A banquet was spread. After it was done justice to the speakingmaster began and was continued until midnight. Among those who spoke were Mayor Conner, in an address of welcome; Henry Exall, Dudley Wooten, Bryan T. Barry, Hugh Blakely, W. A. Shaw of the Texas Farmer; Evan Jones, president of the Alliance; Ben Terrell, national lecturer; Stump Ashby of Fort Worth, and others. Many of the speeches were spicy and humorous, while others were able, eloquent and logical. A good time was had and all who were present thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

ESTABLISHING QUARANTINE.

Dr. Rutherford Quarantining Against Potatoes in Mexico Where Smallpox Exists.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.

CORPUS CHRISTI, TEX., Aug. 21.—State Health Officer Rutherford arrived last night by the steamer Bessie Rose. He left by water for Brownsville. Dr. Rutherford is out quarantining against potatoes of Mexico where smallpox is said to be raging. He is determined that a strict quarantine shall be established and enforced to confine the disease to points where it now exists. A quarantine has been established at Laredo and other places.

THE ALLIANCE.

A Compromise Resolution on the Sub-Treasury Matter.

The Members Left Free to Take Any Position They Choose in the Discussion of the Bill.

It Will Be an Issue in the Next Campaign—A Resolution Indorsing The Gazette's Officers Installed.

Special to the Gazette.

DALLAS, TEX., Aug. 20.—If one were permitted to be present and report the secret proceedings of the state Farmers' Alliance, now in session in this city, he would doubtless be able to give to the reading public much that it would regard as of more than passing interest. The Alliance, however, prefers to transact its business in secret, and to make known only so much of its proceedings as it is deemed best to have published. This is mainly of a formal and routine character, and is consequently of less interest than the earnest and ANIMATED QUESTIONS that are considered of vital interest by every Alliance man in the state. The proceedings of to-day, so far as they have been given to the public, are as follows:

Immediately after assembling this forenoon the executive committee submitted its report. Concerning its character and contents the members of the committee decline to talk.

The chairman, B. J. Kendrick, dodged every question calculated to draw out information concerning what was in the report, but said it

WAS WELL RECEIVED.

The committee was unanimously thanked for the manner in which they had discharged their duties. He admitted, however, that they were not able to report quite as much money as was expected, but hoped their successors would be able to do better in this regard.

After the reception and adoption of the executive committee's report the election of officers took place and resulted as follows:

President—Evan Jones.

Vice-President—T. J. Anderson.

Secretary and Treasurer—S. O. Dawes.

Lecturer—J. M. Perdue.

Executive committee—R. A. High, S. C. Granberry and J. T. Crawford.

The secretary and treasurer had no opponents, and were re-elected by acclamation.

The old executive committee, consisting of B. J. Kendrick, chairman; D. F. Rogers, secretary, and D. M. Cunningham, having served the constitutional limit, were not candidates for re-election.

The names of the following persons were presented to the convention for places on this committee, the ballot resulting

R. A. High, 75.

Milton Park, 11.

S. C. Granberry, 66.

J. P. Crawford, 55.

W. G. Moore, 35.

G. L. Clark, 45.

John W. Homer, 9.

The total vote cast was 345. The three candidates receiving the highest votes were declared elected. Those were High, Granberry and Crawford. The committee was elected for one year.

ANTI-SUB-TREASURY CAUCUS.

During the noon hour an anti-sub-treasury bill caucus presided over by D. M. Cunningham, was held.

There were perhaps fifty or sixty persons present. The sub-treasury bill was made the topic for discussion, but the proceedings were secret. The sub-treasury matter, however, divides the convention. The ticket elected to-day indicates that the advocates of the measure are on top. It is no index, however, to the action of the convention, which may conclude to let the matter alone.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Southern Mercury was also held and the business affairs of that paper submitted to it.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.

DALLAS, TEX., Aug. 23.—The sub-treasury matter was finally disposed of in the Alliance convention by the adoption of the following compromise resolution offered by Ben Terrell and Tom Smith, the tenor of which was indicated in last night's dispatches:

Resolved, by the Farmers' Alliance of Texas, that the bill now pending before congress, and known as the sub-treasury bill, be referred to the sub-alliances to be discussed as a measure for carrying into effect the demands made at St. Louis by the National Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, that the government should issue money direct to the people without the intervention of national banks. Further

Resolved, that it is the sense of this body that all members of the Farmers' Alliances are free to take any position they may prefer on the discussion of said bill.

The passage of this resolution was practically a victory for shrewd in resources and more than equal in parliamentary tactics to the majority. The vote of the convention on the original resolution stood seventy-three to twenty-three. Sixteen counties were, however, excused from voting.

A DETERMINED MINORITY.

The following is the original resolution over which the long wrangle was made, and which was adopted yesterday morning by the above vote:

Whereas, the finances of our government are so adjusted that money cannot be obtained by the agricultural and laboring people upon which to transact their business without paying such enormous rates that is sure to bankrupt the farmers and laboring people of America and thereby destroy the republic; and

Whereas, relief from the impending ruin must be speedily had; and

Whereas the Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union at its December meeting, 1889, held at St. Louis, Mo., did demand

1. The unlimited coinage of silver.

2. The passage of what is known as the principle and purposes of the treasury system.

Therefore, be it resolved by the Farmers' ers' State Alliance of Texas that we indorse these demands.

Resolved, that the rules be and are hereby suspended for their immediate consideration and adoption.

W. R. LAMB, HARRY TRACY, J. A. CULWELL, J. J. BAKER.

This resolution was vigorously and persistently fought by the minority, led by Ben Terrell, President Fields, D. M. Cunningham, Editor Dixon of the Mercury, Tom Smith and other prominent delegates.

The result of the adoption of the compromise resolution is that each member of the Alliance is left free to favor or oppose the sub-treasury bill. It will, however, be discussed by local Alliances during the next two years and made an issue in

THE NEXT CAMPAIGN.

A resolution was offered last night indorsing the Fort Worth GAZETTE for its support of Hogg's candidacy and advocacy of the commission amendment. It was adopted.

To-day when this resolution came up nearly all the members expressed themselves as friendly to THE GAZETTE, but many of them thought it a partisan construction would be put upon it.

A resolution indorsing the course pursued by the Southern Mercury, the Alliance organ, was adopted.

A resolution commending the course of the papers that supported Hogg for the nomination for governor, and advocated the adoption of the commission amendment was adopted. Also a resolution condemning the course of the anti-Hogg bill anti-commission papers.

The committee on demands reported a resolution requesting the legislature to pass some law directing the penitentiary board to establish cotton and other bagging factories in the penitentiaries of the state, and to employ convicts in such factories. The advocates of the resolution claimed it would relieve the farmers of the burden of the price of the cotton of the bagging trusts and syndicates.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

It is proposed to make this question an issue in the ensuing legislative campaign. Alliance men claim the scheme is both feasible and practicable, and that it has the indorsement of Maj. Goree, superintendent of the prison at Tarrant. Candidates for the legislature will be asked to pledge themselves to support legislation necessary to carry it into effect.

The newly elected officers were installed this afternoon, after which the delegates took in the sights of the city, going first to the fair grounds and afterwards to Oak Cliff.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.

DALLAS, TEX., Aug. 23.—The session of the Alliance convention this morning consisted principally of the reception of the reports of committees and their discussion. Reports were received from the committee on the good of the order, the committee on constitutional revision and the committee on demands. The report of the latter committee was the most important. It is as follows:

To the President and Delegates of the State Alliance of Texas:

After due consideration of all resolutions and demands, we, your committee, respectfully submit the following:

1. We demand of our representatives in congress repeal of all discriminating laws which are now oppressing our industrial classes. That the revenue derived from the tariff be based on an ad valorem value so that the luxuries are taxed the equal share of the burden of taxation.

2. We demand the unlimited coinage of gold and silver and that this be supplemented by legal tender treasury notes and sufficient volume to meet the demands of the country without the intervention of national banks.

3. We demand that the lands of our nation be held in sacred reserve for homesteaders, for American citizens, and that such laws be passed that shall compel aliens to transfer titles in a reasonable time to all lands that they have heretofore acquired.

4. We demand that laws be passed both state and national, that shall regulate transportation in the interest of the people, and that actual investments are the basis upon which all corporations shall declare their dividend.

5. We further demand of the Twenty-second legislature such revision of the present land laws as will open up the western part of our state to actual settlers only.

6. That we recommend to the Twenty-second legislature the establishment of factories within the walls of our penitentiaries for the purpose of manufacturing cotton or other bagging to wrap the cotton crop of this state, and thereby protect our farmers from the oppression of destructive monopolies.

The remainder of the day was devoted to closing up the business affairs of the order.

The convention adjourned this evening.

A large excursion from Fort Worth under the management of the Fred Heim brewing company of Kansas City will arrive in Dallas to-morrow forenoon from Fort Worth. Mr. R. S. Crohn, the Texas representative of the company is in the city to-day arranging for the proper reception and entertainment of the excursionists while here. The party will be a jolly one and will doubtless thoroughly enjoy themselves while in the metropolitan city.

Remanded Without Bail.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.

BAIRD, TEX., Aug. 21.—The examining trial of W. D. Richardson before Justice Kane was concluded yesterday, three days being consumed in the examination. Mr. Richardson is charged with shooting S. D. Beasley on the night of August 12, from the effect of which he died August 13. It is said Richardson stated during the progress of his trial that on the night of the shooting Beasley asked him for a pistol, and as he was handing it to Beasley it fired with the above result, being purely accidental. Richardson was remanded to jail without bail, and has applied for a writ of habeas corpus.

A COMPROMISE.

Republican Senators Settle Their Differences in Caucus.

Quay Resolution Amended Fixing a Day Next Session for Consideration of the Election Bill.

A Vote on the Tariff Bill Will Be Had About Sept. 5 and Adjournment Reached the Middle of Next Month.

To Fight in Private.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The Republican senators have decided not to wash their dirty linen in public. This is the reason why the Quay resolution did not come up in the senate to-day. A plan is arranged to come to an agreement in conference. To this end a caucus will be held to-night at the residence of Senator McMillan. An order of business will be arranged that will be satisfactory to the Quay, Hoar, Edmunds and Frye factions. The new order will be substantially the Quay resolution with an amendment fixing the day next session for consideration of the election bill and possibly a date also for vote upon it. Of course the Democrats will not vote for this, but it will be a caucus agreement and may therefore get the support of the Republicans. It is not yet determined whether to insert a provision fixing a date for vote as it is feared there are enough anti-force bill senators to prevent it. If this provision is not made there will not be much chance of the ultimate passage of the bill as the Democrats can easily talk it to death in the three months session. It is understood that after to-night's caucus the Democrats will be told of the postponement of the force bill and counselled as to a date for voting upon the tariff bill. It is thought this can be had about September 5 and an adjournment reached somewhere about the middle of the month.

Coke on the Tariff.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Senator Coke made a particularly able speech on the senate tariff bill to-day in which he analyzed and exposed its defects in a way that made the high protectionist wince. It was an exhaustive argument and commanded the closest attention of the Democratic senators.

NO EXTENSION OF TIME.

Judge Abbott, at the request of prominent cattlemen of Fort Worth, had an interview with Secretary Noble to-day, in which he asked for an extension of the time given the owners of cattle to get them out of the Indian Territory. Mr. Noble replied that he had consulted with the president on the matter, and that it had been agreed not to extend the time, but to adhere to the original order. Owners had as well prepare to act on this information, as the secretary spoke in a most decided way.
